

Honoring Black History Month

Every Sunday throughout February, the contributions to our shared faith made by Black thinkers will be honored. You are invited to ponder their words as we collectively express gratitude for the ways our understanding of God has been enhanced by the courage and spirituality of Black Christian siblings.

The prelude this Sunday is called “Offertory” by Harrison Leslie Adams. Adams is an African American composer, pianist, choral conductor, show musical director and professor, born in Cleveland, Ohio in 1932. Since receiving his doctorate from Ohio State University in 1968, Adams has excelled in recording and performing with the finest symphony orchestras in the world. As a composer, Adam’s music is primarily within the Western classical music tradition but incorporates many elements unique to African-American music. The postlude this Sunday is called “Arietta” by Samuel Coleridge-Taylor (1875-1912) who was also highlighted last weekend and is regarded in some circles as the “African Mahler”.

City of Springfield Mask Requirement

Due to the City of Springfield’s indoor mask mandate, masks will be required inside Trinity at all times.

If You Don’t Want to be on Camera

With our three new cameras up and running during worship, and the service being recorded and posted online, the Technology Team wants to remind members that if you come to in-person worship, you may be visible on the video. If you do not want to be recorded, please inform an usher so that they can seat you appropriately. Thank you.

Please Let the Church Office Know Your Updated Mailing Address, Phone Number & Email

New England weather is unpredictable and occasionally the church has to close due to inclement weather. The best way for us to contact everyone at once is via our robocall system. Also, if you are new to Trinity Church and haven’t given us your information yet please do so by email the church office at info@trinityspringfield.org. Thank you.

A Request From the Parkside Pantry

We are asking everyone who is able to please fill a bag with the following items: a box of cereal, a pack of toilet paper, a box of pasta, a jar or can of pasta sauce, a jar of peanut butter, a jar of jam or jelly, a can of tuna fish, a can of chicken, a bag of rice, a bag of beans. These items can be dropped off in the rear of the Sanctuary Thank you.

Cookies, Coffee and Lemonade Coming Soon

Starting February 20th after worship, a team of volunteers will be serving cookies and lemonade as part of our return to full fellowship hour, which we hope will start next month. In the meantime, we will also continue to make coffee and tea available for the morning risers.

Welcome to Worship!

WELCOME! We are glad that you are here! If you have any questions, ask one of the ushers. They can be found near the rear entrance of the sanctuary. Large-print Bibles and hymnals, and hearing devices are available from any usher. Following the worship service, we invite you to join us for a time of fellowship and refreshment in Asbury Hall.
