We are looking for 4-6 volunteers to help with cleaning one of Trinity's elder member's yard. We are either looking at a weekday or weekend early in May. New England Justice for Our Neighbors Announces "10 for 10" Campaign

In this first campaign of our 10th year, we are seeking supporters willing to become monthly donors at a level of at least $10 each month. Our affiliate, National Justice for Our Neighbors, will match each eligible donation for the rest of this year, up to a total of $10,000. With this generous match, a monthly donation of $10 starting this month will lead to a total of $200 to NEJFON for immigrant justice. You can visit <https://bit.ly/NEJFON10for10>. With your help, we can continue to provide our critical services for another decade.

Thank you for your support!

GOT MULCH???

As a member of the Membership and Evangelism Committee, we are always looking for ways to reach out in friendly, unique ways to connect/reconnect with each other. What better way to do so than by getting absolutely filthy in the Trinity Rose Garden. We will do some weeding and some mulching by the front sign. If all goes according to plan, we will begin after service on Sunday, May 1. Please come dressed for gardening. Bring your own bag lunch and a drink to enjoy amidst the roses. Please consider coming out to work together in the spirit of kindness and love. The roses will thank you, and so will I!
