1 Barbara Coffin’s favorite hymn.
"My mother, who was the daughter of missionaries, used to sing hymns to me when she tucked me in at night as a small child. Verse 4 of the hymn begins 'Drop thy still dews of quiet stillness...'. I heard it as 'Drop thy still dews of icy juice', so I always wanted to hear that verse because it made me think of a nice cool drink as I fell asleep.

Believing that all persons are created in God's image and are of sacred worth, that Jesus' message was one of inclusion of those rejected by mainstream society, and that each member makes inherent and valuable contributions to the Body of Christ, we of Trinity Church welcome into this congregation people of every age, race, ethnicity, gender identity, sexual orientation, socio-economic condition, family structure, and physical or mental ability.

WORDS TO FOLLOW ALONG

- CALL TO WORSHIP: (enfleshed, adapted)
  Take heart, friends. We are not an aimless people!
  It is the Kindom of Heaven we desire.
  The path does not need to be clear.
  We need not fear if we wander or we stray.
  Love will be an ever-present guide, calling us with patience and truth.
  As we go, we practice healing.
  We keep learning and unlearning.
  We right our wrongs.
  We set down our defenses, our power, our closed-minded thinking.
  The practice of justice will be our north star.
  Thanks be to God, our way in the wilderness.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND SILENT REFLECTION: (Ted Loder, adapted)

Lord, you know the truth is that too often we live to please ourselves and others rather than to please you. Lord, you know the truth is that too often we excuse ourselves by claiming that we know too much, or too little, to trust you or seek your will, that we are so good and right we must insist on our own way, or that we are so flawed we must use self-pity to control others. Yet, Lord, you know, as we too often forget, that the greatest truth of all, the greatest truth of us, is that even now, we are never far from your heart, or at remove from your mercy.

THE LORD’S PRAYER:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

SCRIPTURE READING: Exodus 20: 1-17

The Ten Commandments

20 Then God spoke all these words:2 I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery; 3 you shall have no other gods before me. 4 You shall not make for yourself an idol, whether in the form of anything that is in heaven above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth. 5 You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I the Lord your God am a jealous God, punishing children for the iniquity of parents, to the third and the fourth generation of those who reject me. 6 but showing steadfast love to the thousandth generation of those who love me and keep my
